West Hazleton Native is Awarded Doctor's Degree

Walter F. Steinman, psychologist at the Northeastern South Dakota Mental Health Center, Aberdeen, S. D., will receive a Doctor of Philosophy degree from the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, at commencement exercises on Saturday.

In the work toward his Ph.D., Steinman majored in clinical psychology and minored in neuropsychiatry.

A native of West Hazleton, he is a son of Mrs. C. Warren Klinger, 538 Lincoln street, this city, and is married to the former Beatrice Molberg, Minneapolis.

He was graduated from Hazleton High School in 1940, and in 1950 received a Bachelor of Science degree from the Pennsylvania State University, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary society.

In 1951 he received a Master of Science degree from Penn State.

Steinman, a veteran of World War Two, was employed by the Central Intelligence Agency as an administrative officer in Korea from 1952 to 1955, and from 1955 to 1956 he served his internship in clinical psychology at New Hampshire State Hospital.

From 1956 to 1958 he was employed by the Counseling Center of the University of West Virginia, and served an internship at the Veterans Hospitals of Minneapolis and St. Cloud, Minn., from 1958 to 1962.
